SPECIAL LECTURES November 16, 8:30 p.m.
November 18, 8:30 p.m.

A series of six lectures by distinguished authorities have been arranged to accompany The Cleveland Museum of Art's special exhibition TREASURES FROM MEDIEVAL FRANCE.

The first lecture will be given by Mr. Hubert Landais from Paris on Wednesday, November 16 at 8:30 p.m. He will discuss THE TREASURES OF ST. DENIS AND THE STE. CHAPELLE. Mr. Landais is Chief Conservator of the French National Museums.

The second lecture will be given two days later on Friday, November 18 at 8:30 p.m., by Marcel Henri Thomas, Chief Conservator of the Manuscript department at the Bibliotheque Nationale in Paris. He will discuss FRENCH MANUSCRIPTS AT THE TIME OF CHARLES VI. During this period manuscript production was at its summit.
